

Feel the power of a landmark civil rights moment.

A Live Reading of MLK's powerful
Letter from a Birmingham Jail

Monday, January 17th (MLK Day) at 10 am
On the steps of St. James's Episcopal Church
1205 West Franklin Street

No ticket required. Easy parking. Some seating available. Masks strongly recommended.

Can't be here? Livestream at doers.org.

READERS:

- Rev. Dr. J. Lee Hill, Jr.—Missioner for Racial Justice & Healing for the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia
- Larry Clark—President Central Richmond Region and member of St. Philip's Richmond
- Cantor Sarah Beck-Berman—Cantor at Congregation Beth Ahabah & B'nei Mitzvah Coordinator Beth Ahabah
- Levar M. Stoney—Mayor of Richmond
- Mrs. Mae Shields—Member Spring Creek Baptist Church in Midlothian.
Marched, arrested and jailed during the Children's March May 2-3, 1963
- Dr. Lisa Edwards-Burrs—St. Paul's Catholic Church and member of St James's Parish Choir
- Ms. Bella Smith—Member of St. John's Episcopal Church Richmond